Golf

Teeth of the Dog

Ranked the number one course in the Caribbean and 34th in the top 100 courses in the world by Golf Magazine, play Teeth's seven holes directly on the Caribbean Sea. The "Teeth" course attracts the best professional and amateur golfers in the world. Tricky shots include a devilish dogleg and signature Dye obstacles such as elevated greens and trick of the eye trees. Top-notch caddies are ready and eager to guide you through the terrain.

The Links

The Links course, also designed by Pete Dye, has a moderately hilly track with tall bahia and guinea grass roughs as well as plenty of sand traps to keep you on your toes. Thought by some to be reminiscent of traditional British and Scottish courses, there are several lagoons and even lakes with wading birds. There are five holes where water comes into play on this course making it a challenge unto itself.

Dye Fore

Of the 18 picturesque holes on the Dye Fore course, number 12 and number 15 are two of the greatest par three courses in the world. This new addition to the Casa de Campo golf triad is said to rival the "Teeth of the Dog" course. "Dye Fore has spectacular views of the Caribbean Sea, the mountains, the Chavón River below and the Altos de Chavón artists' village," said Gilles Gagnon, Director of Golf at Casa de Campo. "Visually, the course is intimidating and the par three's are incredible."
